FROM THE AIRPORT BY TRAIN

The train station is located very close to the terminal T2. If your flight arrives at terminal T1, you must take a shuttle bus to terminal T2. The bus is free and takes 8 to 10 minutes.

FROM THE AIRPORT BY BUS

The AeroBus goes from the center of Barcelona (Placa Catalunya) up to the airport, with several stops along its route.

The AeroBus A1 goes to Terminal T1 and the AeroBus A2 goes to Terminal T2. At the airport, the AeroBus A2 has 3 stops at terminal T2 (T2A, T2B and T2C) and the AeroBus A1 one in terminal T1.

The Aerobus is a low-floor (level-boarding) bus and is equipped with retractable boarding ramps facilitating access for wheelchair users and luggage.

The return ticket is valid up to nine days after the first validity date. You can buy the ticket on the bus (cash) or from airport vending machines using a credit card or VISA card 6000.

If you wait at the bus stop, to stop you should make a visual signal, arm or hand, otherwise it may take longer.

FROM THE AIRPORT BY TAXI

The taxi stand is in front of the terminals. The minimum price of a service to/from airport, including supplemental charges, is around 20€.
